19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MOSES AND ELIJAH .-

In the Transfiguration of Jesus on Mount Tabor appeared two holy men of the Old Testament conversing with Jesus :

Moses and Elijah ( Matthew 17 ) , the three apostles :

Peter , James and John were amazed of what they were contemplating ...

why Moses ? because he represents the ancient law ; and why Elijah ?

because he is the prophet of the prophets . And now after centuries of centuries they are conversing with Jesus about his passion ,

Jesus said :

“ the whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments ” ( Matthew 22 ) , the commandments of “ love God with all your heart and your neighbor ” .

Jesus is the center , all the prophets are pointing to Jesus and all their prophecies in Him are fulfilled.

“ all things were created through Him and for Him ” ( Colossians 1 )

May the Lord Jesus be also the center of our lives and always the center and the master of our dear Blessed Trinity .

Mary , Mother of the Redeemer , pray for us Blessings from Fr. Jaime
