THE CHURCH: FRUIT OF THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS

In Church we pray, we adore, we praise, we give thanks to the living and true God, not to an idea or concept. It means that there is a dialogue of friendship and confidence in prayer. We speak, God listens, He speaks into our hearts, we listen.

From the Chrism Mass I share with you the words said by Bishop Robert to the faithful in the renewing of our priestly promises, is this:

"And you dearest, sons and daughters, pray for your Priests, that the Lord may pour out His gifts abundantly on them, and keep them faithful as your ministers of Christ, the High Priest, so that they may lead you to him, who is the source of salvation".

Blessings from the empty tomb

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Our beloved and unforgettable John Paul II, during his pontificate, greatly promoted devotion to the Divine Mercy which is what Jesus came to bring to this world. This is why he says "I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep by their name and I give my life for them" (Jn. 10).

At the Masses on Sunday, April 12th, we will pray together in community the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

The Novena began Good Friday -each person individually, ending the Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday).

"JESUS, HAVE MERCY ON US"
