INSPIRED BY THE ADMIRABLE TESTIMONY OF ST. PATRICK.

The important impact that St. Patrick has had in the history of our Catholic Church is explained by his own words: "I am greatly God's debtor, because he granted me so much grace, that through me many people would be reborn in God..."

As a holy Bishop with zeal for the glory of God, he was preaching the Gospel of Jesus in every corner of Ireland, founding churches and monasteries, more than four hundred. It happened in the V century.

One man, named Patrick, took the loving and strong decision for Christ and brought thousands and thousands into the joyful life of faith. Now, let us rejoice with a very old Irish hymn dedicated to Our Blessed Mother: "safe from the rugged thorn, spring up the tender rose in honour hidden the parents stem, in beauty's softness grows; so from the sinful stem of Eve all sinless Mary came to cover and to expiate her mother's deed of shame".

Blessings in the Trinity

Fr. Jaime
