CLIMBING THE HILLS OF FAITH

When we come to our dear Blessed Trinity Church we go up and down the hills of the Upstate and it is beautiful...it is not flat, boring, routine...it is more alive.

In the fields of faith it is the same, it is like a wellspring. According to the liturgical cycles we are always moving forward, growing, learning, grasping.

On these days the Holy Spirit is inviting us to enter the gates of Ordinary Time, in other words, the time of Jesus' mission, we started the journey of faith with Jesus in his public ministry beginning in Galilee and spreading to every corner of the world through the Church. This journey is taking us to climb the hills of faith, day after day, with big efforts, sacrifice, discipline and a lot of love; the goal is not only to contemplate the immense and supreme beauty of Jesus Christ, Savior and Redeemer, his glory and majesty, but to follow his steps and begin the joy of our Christian mission.

Prayer uplifts us and Jesus with his right hand will show us the way down, the invitation to go into the valleys of this world and continue this journey of faith sowing the seeds of the Gospel everywhere.

In a true and solid brotherhood and with the company of our dear Blessed Mother Mary and St. Joseph let us continue this journey of faith, our pilgrimage to heaven.

Loving blessings from Fr. Jaime
