ST. JOSEPH - LENT - ST. PATRICK .-

This second Sunday of Lent is decorated with two precious pearls : St. Joseph and St. Patrick lives and feasts .

St. Joseph feast , March 19 , he is so admirable , the adoptive father of Jesus , the spouse of Mary ,he is chaste , just , obedient , valiant , humble , prayerful , faithful , the guardian of the Holy Family , the patron of dying , the terror of demons and protector of the Catholic Church , he has so much to teach us for our Lenten journey , the self-detachment , to trust completely in God and obey his will always and to be close , close to Jesus and Mary . For sure he was the most happy man in the world , no suffering or obstacle could take his joy away. Let us imitate him in this Lenten season and be glad following the steps of Jesus our Redeemer.

St. Patrick feast , March 17 , a great saint , a man with heavenly horizons and his feet rooted on earth , his life a great light to lead us into God's plan that is always perfect. St. Patrick (Britannia 386- 461) left us this wonderful inheritance , his wisdom :

" the Lord opened the understanding of my unbelieving heart , so that I should recall my sins " . Inspired by these wise words we want to live our Lenten journey with contrite hearts .

Mary , Mother of the Redeemer , pray for us .
Blessings from Fr. Jaime
