RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: 2017-2018: Our goal as a Catholic Church in the program of Religious Education is to give our children, youth and adults and enough knowledge to receive the Sacraments in the proper time, but our intention is not that they accumulate non-transforming knowledge or just piling up classes after classes, but leading them into the realm of Our Lord Jesus Christ, like the Blessings" blessed are the poor in spiritthe merciful ...the peacemakersthe clean of heart...." (Matthew 5).

God bless abundantly all our dear families who participate in our Religious Education program. Fr. Jaime

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

DECENCY.-

Those who possess a heart adorned with the values of Christ Jesus know what is decency, as it was written:

" let us walk with decency as in the daylight " (Romans 13) . Each of us who believes in Jesus and follows him unconditionally must have a decent life and away from vulgarity, roughness, rudeness, indecency which abound in the society and in many corners of our roads in life indecency is waiting for our " ok I participate in cursing, offending, despising and all " the deeds of darkness " (Romans 13), but with the assistance of the Holy Spirit we reject that awful invitation and choose peace and good for ourselves and for all.

I imagine the crowds of decent people at our dear Blessed Trinity, those who not only praise God with their lips, but altogether with their hearts. " Blessed are the clean of heart " (Matthew 5) and let us start with our children instilling in them good and holy values through our Religious Education program.

If we go to the beautiful Proverbs 31, the sayings of King Lemuel (meaning " devoted to God "), we find the description of a good wife saying " she is clothed with strength and dignity" and joyfully we can apply to all of us who love our Lord Jesus Christ remembering the words of 1 Peter: " you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood " Let us have a life and family of dignity & decency. Mary, Immaculate Mother, pray for us.

Blessings from Fr. Jaime
